Proclaimed as the most "sought-after trio in the world," this all-female group's sound encompasses a wide repertoire, with specialties both in Beethoven's Concertos and transcriptions of American classics such as Gershwin and Bernstein. "The women of the Eroica Trio play nothing halfway. Hair flying, bodies heaving, bows shedding hairs left and right... the Eroica achieved gestures of orchestral powers and sweep."
– The Washington Post

DID YOU KNOW: PAUL KOWERT, THE
BASS PLAYER, WAS A STUDENT WITH SSM
on VIOLIN BEFORE DISCOVERING THE BASS?

Paul Kowert is from Madison, WI, and recently graduated from The Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. As a classical musician Paul has performed with various orchestras as a soloist and as a section member, most recently playing in the Verbier Festival Orchestra in Switzerland in the summer of 2008. He was one of the performers at Edgar Meyer's Carnegie Hall workshop in 2006, and since then has appeared in concert with Darol Anger's Republic of Strings, Tristan and Tashina Clarridge, Alex and Tatiana Hargreaves, Futureman's Black Mozart Ensemble, Jordan Tice, Brittany Haas, and Jeremy Kittel. Paul can be heard as a member of "Mike Marshall's Big Trio" with mandolinist Mike Marshall and violinist Alex Hargreaves, a group that just released it's first album. Paul is the newest member of Punch Brothers and is also a new resident of Brooklyn, NY.
